The ever infamous Grove Street Bicycles had their freestyle crew over at Tribeca for the premiere of 'The Birth of Big Air, The Matt Hoffman Story', last Saturday. The guys were shredding up the area and repped the NJ scene hard on the island where the evil of Wall Street dwells. We got our hands on the web edit of the show and are tossing it up on here for posterity. Check part owner Mike Wilson busting the flat freshness and BMXNJ auteur Louis Orth spinning madly as well. NJ all day, every way, ok...??{youtube}XwumDhBs6ig{/youtube}
